As you may know, student fees help to offset the cost of CAE offering free classes for teens and survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, and childhood abuse. You can choose to make a one-time donation and/or to increase your monthly fee, and your contribution will go directly to pay for the cost of providing these free services. (For as little as $5 per month, you can pay for a survivor to take an entire self-defense course!)

Sign me up for a one-time donation of $ _____.

This will be added to your fee for the upcoming month, unless otherwise indicated.

Add the following amount to my established monthly fee:

(Check one) $5.00 $20.00
 $10.00 Other amount: $ _____

Class Agreements for Self-Defense

- One Mic (one person speaks at a time)
- Move forward, Move back
 - If you don't say much, give it a try
 - If you talk a lot, give others a chance
- What's said here, stays here. What's learned here, leaves here
 - Confidentiality -If you need to discuss contents of this workshop, don't use names or repeat personal info
- No put-downs of individual or groups of people- don't use oppressive (bigoted) language
- Intent is different from Impact
 - The impact of your comments may be different from your intent (think before you speak)
- Respect:
 - For each participant & our differences, remember our commonalities
 - For the group
 - For the teachers
 - For yourself
 - For the childcare here for childcare
 - For the space (clean up after yourself and your childcare, if applicable)
- Speak for yourself, from your own experience
- Take chances (try things that may be new or unfamiliar) while taking care of yourself (physically & emotionally)
- It's okay to make mistakes (we all do!)- it's part of everyone's learning process
- Remember, we all have different ways to handle difficult situations. Listen to others, you may learn something new. If it works for you – great. If it doesn't, let it go

I agree to follow the guidelines outlined in this handout.
